

FACULTY ANNOUNCEMENT

4 March 2010

NUS Faculty of Law congratulates our alumni Sundaresh Menon, SC '86 on his appointment as Attorney-General of Singapore

Mr Sundaresh Menon, SC '86, currently managing partner of Rajah & Tann, will take over as Singapore Attorney-General in October 2010.

Mr Menon graduated from National University of Singapore with first-class honours and later obtained a master's degree from Harvard Law School.

Regarded as one of the world's top arbitrators, he is currently deputy chairman of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre and is a member of the Senate of the Singapore Academy of Law.

4 March 2010, The Straits Times